

Paper Presented at Two days UGC Sponsored National Level Conference, DLIS, Smt. L.R.T College of Commerce in collaboration with Vidrabha Library Association, Akola, held on December 18-19,2009

Digital Library Service at Higher Education in India

Goutam Biswas

Research Fellow,

Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kalyani, Nadia,
West Bengal, India

Email: goutambiswas8@gmail.com

Abstract

The paper has discussed various issues like definition and advantage digital library, various types of digital library softwares etc. Universities and research institutes have played a leading role in transforming the country into a modern industrialized and technologically advanced state. The green revolution and tremendous progress in dairy development have made India a major food-producing country. Its development of space technology, the production and launching of indigenous satellites, and the development of peaceful nuclear energy have brought it into the forefront of technologically advanced nations to which a large number of developing countries look for training and guidance. Indian universities and institutes of higher learning support the needs and aspirations of Indian students and scholars. The libraries of those institutions also play a vital role in acquiring and disseminating information for academic and research activities. Digital libraries are a way of making educational and research data and information available to faculty, researchers, students, and others at the institutions and worldwide.

Please Contact with Author to get full paper free of cost: Email: goutambiswas8@gmail.com,
<http://www.goutambiswasresearch.yolasite.com>